

“For Undeserving Man, He Was Slain (Isa. 52:13-53:12)”

© Daniel J. Harrison (2025) – Tune: SOUTHERN HARMONY

D A C A D A
1: The Servant, wise divine, lifted high, do behold
F A D
Exalted after he was brought low
A D A D
More marred was he bestown; no man had seen or known
A F D A
As such his life atones, sprinkling blood on the throne
F A D
Exalted after he was brought low

D A C A D A
2: The Servant, have you heard, have his word you believed?
F A D
Rejected by his kin, no esteem
A D A D
Sprout in dry ground grew he; unsightly majesty
A F D A
His shoulders carried grief, men mistook him a thief
F A D
Rejected by his kin, no esteem

D A C A D A
3: The Servant, esteemed not, for his body was struck
F A D
By God, for all our sins, he was crushed
A D A D
The wicked through him thrust; these piercings were unjust
A F D A
All we like sheep are lost, in each deed and each thought
F A D
By God, for all our sins, he was crushed

D A C A D A
4: The Servant bore our pain, yet from evil refrained
F A D
For undeserving man, he was slain
A D A D
His purity maintained, yet mouth did not complain
A F D A
His fate not ascertained, spotless lamb shearers maimed
F A D
For undeserving man, he was slain

D A C A D A
5: The Servant satisfies, willing dies, God’s delight
F A D
His resurrection life justifies
A D A D
To God, he, man unites those whose sins he’s made right
A F D A
He banished dark with light, we declare him the Christ
F A D
Whose resurrection life justifies
