

The Lord is Our Righteousness (Jer. 23:1-7)

© Daniel J. Harrison, 2023

Tune: TWIN SISTERS (original)

1: Behold, when he arose, all disciples stood in awe,
For Christ had conquered death, so we shout Hallelujah;
Now our task the same as theirs, to declare to all who breathe,
The time has come, from sin do flee, in Christ you must believe!

Refrain 1: Deep in our heart, and deep in our mind;
We'll plant there this truth penned by Love divine:
Jesus's blood has purchased us,
For Christ, the Lord is our righteousness!

Refrain 2: Saved through the Sea, brought home from the North,
Our God showed the world all his matchless worth;
And yet, even so, the Christ arose,
Rejoice all you who by grace he chose!

2: Behold, declares the Lord, all our hopes will be eclipsed,
By Christ, our in between, in whose name confess our lips;
He was raised to God's right hand, where he sits beyond the veil,
The righteous king, and Lord of all, our sweet Emmanuel!

3: Behold, when he returns, all the saved will dwell secure,
By Christ, our fruitful Branch, who will make our fears no more;
He will lay us by the stream, and our souls will be restored,
At last in peace, on Zion's shore, we'll sing forevermore!

Bridge: The Lord, he is your righteousness,
The Lord, he is my righteousness;
To save you and me, his good purpose,
For Christ, the Lord is our righteousness!
